

Community United Church of Christ
Records, 1853-1968

COLLECTION 11

Champaign County Historical Archives

Compiled by: Laura Mondt, 2009

Creator/Corporate name: Community United Church of Christ

Inclusive Dates: 1853-1968

Physical Description: 11 boxes, (5.5 linear feet).

Provenance: The records of the Community United Church of Christ were donated to the Champaign County Historical Archives in October 2008.

Access: The records are accessible to the public within applicable copyright restrictions and limited to use at the Champaign County Historical Archives of The Urbana Free Library.

Biographical/Historical Note: Community United Church of Christ is composed of three different congregations that merged in 1968. First Christian Church, located on Main Street in Urbana, was founded in 1885 and operated under that name until 1931 when it became the First Congregational Christian Church. In 1957, the national merger of the Congregational Christian Church with the Evangelical and Reformed Church led to yet another name change, this time to the First United Church of Christ. The second church, St. Andrew's United Church of Christ, was founded in 1961 in the southern portion of Urbana. Recent development in the area created demand for a new church. St. Andrew's was a small church that met in a converted house in a development. The third church, The First Congregational Church on Campus, dates back to 1853, when it was known as the Goose Pond Congregational Church. This church met in various locations throughout the downtown Champaign area before moving to the UIUC campus in 1920 at the intersection of 6th and Daniel, which became the home of Community United Church of Christ.

Before the congregations merged, each congregation had a slightly different mission, but they all had several active church groups as well as Sunday Schools and shared the core mission of spreading the faith throughout the community. By 1967, all three churches were faced with stagnant or declining enrollment. First United Church of Christ was considering a new building as was First Congregational Church. While informal merger talks began in 1965, it became a serious reality in 1967 when the Committee of Nine was formed. The Committee of Nine had representatives from each church who created a proposal for merger that was then voted on by members of each congregation. The merger was approved in January 1968 and Community United Church of Christ was born.

Scope and Content Note: The collection contains records from each of the three churches prior to 1968. In addition, there is a collection of records of the Women's Fellowship, both from before and after the merger. The records of St. Andrew's United Church of Christ cover the entire existence of the church from 1960-1967. There are records from the founding of the church, membership, organizations, finances, and bulletins. The records of First Christian/First Congregational Christian/First United Church of Christ date back to 1853. The records document finances, membership, church organizations, and administrative minutes. The records of the First Congregation Church on Campus contain bulletins and church newsletters, with a few membership and financial records. The records of the Women's Fellowship represent the history of the group, following the group from the First Congregational Church in 1914 through the 1960s. The records contain meeting minutes, yearbooks, and information from the group's charity work.

Arrangement: Records are arranged into four series and alphabetically by folder within each series.

Series 1 contains the records of St. Andrew's Community United Church of Christ. These records include membership, finances, founding information, newsletters and bulletins.

Series 2 contains the records of First Christian/First Congregational Christian/First United Church of Christ. The records include membership, financial information, administrative meeting minutes, newsletters and correspondence.

Series 3 contains the records of the First Congregational Church on Campus. The records consist of bulletins, newsletters, and attendance ledges from several Christian conferences. It also contains the records (bound) for Plans for University Church, 1908-1922.

Series 4 contains the records of the Women's Fellowship, which is a church organization. These records begin in 1914 and cover the group as it existed under the First Congregational Church on Campus and the First United Church of Christ as well as the group's activities after the merger joined the groups together. Note: Records belonging to First Congregational Church on Campus will be marked (Champaign) while those from the First United Church of Christ will be marked (Urbana-Main St.). Unmarked records represent those created after the merger in 1968.
