Champaign County Historical Archives

Compiled by: Ani Karagianis

Creator/Corporate name: Chanute Air Force Base

Inclusive Dates: 1917-1993

Physical Description: 2 boxes, 2 linear feet

Provenance:

These files were created by the Chanute Air Force Base prior to the base closure. After the base closed, they were then moved to the Chanute Aerospace Museum until the museum's closure in 2015. The Chanute Air Force Base Graphics Collection was donated to the Champaign County Historical Archives after the Octave Chanute Aerospace Museum closed.

Access:

The records are accessible to the public within applicable copyright restrictions and limited to use at the Champaign County Historical Archives of The Urbana Free Library.

Historical Note:

The Chanute Air Force Base was open for 75 years and operated as a training ground for generations of Air Force servicemen and women. Its long history through several military conflicts and influence as a Technical Training Center made it a well-researched and well-documented subject.

Scope and Content Note:

Consists of graphics, images, and logos collected by the Chanute Air Force Base that covers general air force committees and squadrons, as well as Chanute-specific committees and squadrons.

Arrangement:

This collection is arranged into eleven alphabetical series. Each series is organized alphabetically by content, with numerical dates/squadrons at the end of each series.

Subject Terms:

Chanute Air Force Base (Ill.)

Chanute Air Force base (Ill.)—History

Chanute Field (Ill.)—History

Air Bases—Rantoul—History
