Chanute Air Force Base:
Reports and Plans Collection
Years: 1964-2001

Collection 200.029

Compiled by: Ani Karagianis

Creator/Corporate name: Chanute Air Force Base

Inclusive Dates: 1964-2001, bulk 1980s-1990s

Physical Description: 3 boxes; 3 linear feet

Provenance:

The Chanute Air Force Base files were donated to the Champaign County Historical Archives after the Octave Chanute Air Museum closed in 2015. The Octave Chanute Air Museum received these files from the Chanute Air Force Base upon its closure in 1993.

Access:

The records are accessible to the public within applicable copyright restrictions and limited to use at the Champaign County Historical Archives of The Urbana Free Library.

Historical Note:

The Chanute Air Force Base was open for 76 years and operated as a training ground for generations of Air Force servicemen and women. The Chanute Air Force Base contained a variety of organizations, administrative departments, and offices. This collection provides some information about those organizations and departments. These materials help contextualize how the base was run and mentions different aspects of the base. Much of the base functions were documented and published in different formats.

Scope and Content Note:

The materials in this collection includes various reports and plans covering the running of the base, environmental statements, economic statements, among others. Some of these reports have correspondence or other documents along with them to contextualize the report. These reports cover a wide range of activities on the base and are not exhaustive of all the reports created by Chanute Air Force Base.

Arrangement:

This collection is arranged into two series: General Reports and Plans, and Unit Effectiveness Inspection Reports. It is arranged chronologically, with months specified when available. If there are multiple reports in the same year and month, they will be arranged alphabetically within that year.
