Historical Note:

The Evening Etude Club was originally founded in 1929 to help its members improve their musical abilities and knowledge and to promote music throughout the community. In the early 1980s the Evening Etude Club absorbed the Mozart Music Club becoming the Evening Etude Mozart Music Club. Together they continued to advance their goals of spreading musical knowledge. The club was known for hosting musical events, especially in members' homes.

Scope and Content Note:

This collection contains materials donated by Linna McDade of the Evening Etude Mozart Music Club. These materials primarily include scrapbooks, correspondence, event programs, newspaper clippings, sheet music, membership records, and meeting minutes. The scrapbooks consist of photographs, newspaper clippings, correspondence, and an assortment of documents that reference the club, or events that interested club members.

Arrangement:

Loose materials from the collection were arranged alphabetically at the folder level. Scrapbooks and ledgers were preserved in original order and are filed in boxes, seven of which required oversized boxes.

Separated Materials:

Photographs were removed to Champaign County Historical Archives' Special Collections Photographs series, and one CD by Lois Pierce removed to the digital preservation collection.
