Champaign County Historical Archives

Compiled by: Sherrie Bowser

Creator/Corporate name: Friends of The Urbana Free Library.

Inclusive Dates: 1965-2002.

Physical Description: 2 boxes, (1.5 linear feet).

Provenance:

Items in this collection were donated by the Friends of The Urbana Free Library over time.

Access:

The records are accessible to the public within applicable copyright restrictions and limited to use at the Champaign County Historical Archives of The Urbana Free Library.

Biographical/Historical Note:

The Friends of the Urbana Free Library is a group of people who appreciate and volunteer to support the Library. The group was established in 1975. Funds raised through book sales and donations have been used for purchasing books and eBooks; funding youth reading programs; plantings in the gardens and flower boxes surrounding the library; purchasing the awnings for the Race Street porch; repairing children's library play areas; and the annual funding of the Herbert Goldhor Award, which is issued to a University of Illinois Graduate School of Library and Information Science student planning a career in public libraries. The Friends also enjoy gifting library patrons on holidays, such as Christmas, Valentine's Day, and Halloween with selected book bundles made available at the circulation desk.

Scope and Content Note:

The records contain the working documents of the Friends of The Urbana Free Library including administrative records, financial reports, meeting minutes, membership lists, and project records.
