Inclusive Dates: 1972-2004, Bulk 1976-1989.

Physical Description: 3 boxes, (2.5 linear feet).

Provenance: Items in this collection were donated to the Champaign County Historical Archives.

Access: The records are accessible to the public within applicable copyright restrictions and limited to use at the Champaign County Historical Archives of The Urbana Free Library.

Biographical/Historical Note:

The Champaign County Historical Museum was founded in 1972 with the mission to “collect and preserve artifacts relating to the history of Champaign County, Illinois, and, by using those artifacts in formal and informal educational activities, to interpret that history to the public.” Originally located within the Wilber Mansion, 907 West University Avenue, Champaign, the museum moved to the historic Cattle Bank building at 102 East University Avenue in 1997. The Cattle Bank was built in 1856, and is the oldest commercial structure in Champaign County.

Scope and Content Note: This collection contains organizational records pertaining to the operation and administration of the Champaign County Historical Museum from 1972-2004, as well as records from programs and exhibits they hosted. Materials include meeting minutes, financial reports, committee research, museum activities, exhibit files, and project files.

Arrangement: Records are organized into three series:

Series 1: Administrative records

Series 2: Projects and planning

Series 3: Exhibits and Programs

Records within Series 1 and 2 are organized by record type, then chronologically. Records within Series 3 flow from general to specific exhibit and program material, and are arranged alphabetically.
